

Business for the Arts, bringing together business and the arts to develop a creative and innovative Canada.

Business for the Arts is Canada's only national charitable organization of business members who support the arts.

Since 1974, Business for the Arts has been strengthening arts and culture in Canada by connecting arts organizations to business patrons, volunteers and ambassadors, and by providing resources for arts and business leaders to establish and build successful partnerships.

championing the value of investing in the arts celebrating outstanding business leaders who volunteer and invest in the arts educating arts organizations in the art of partnering with business boardLink™ events to connect business professionals to arts boards

Our National Programs

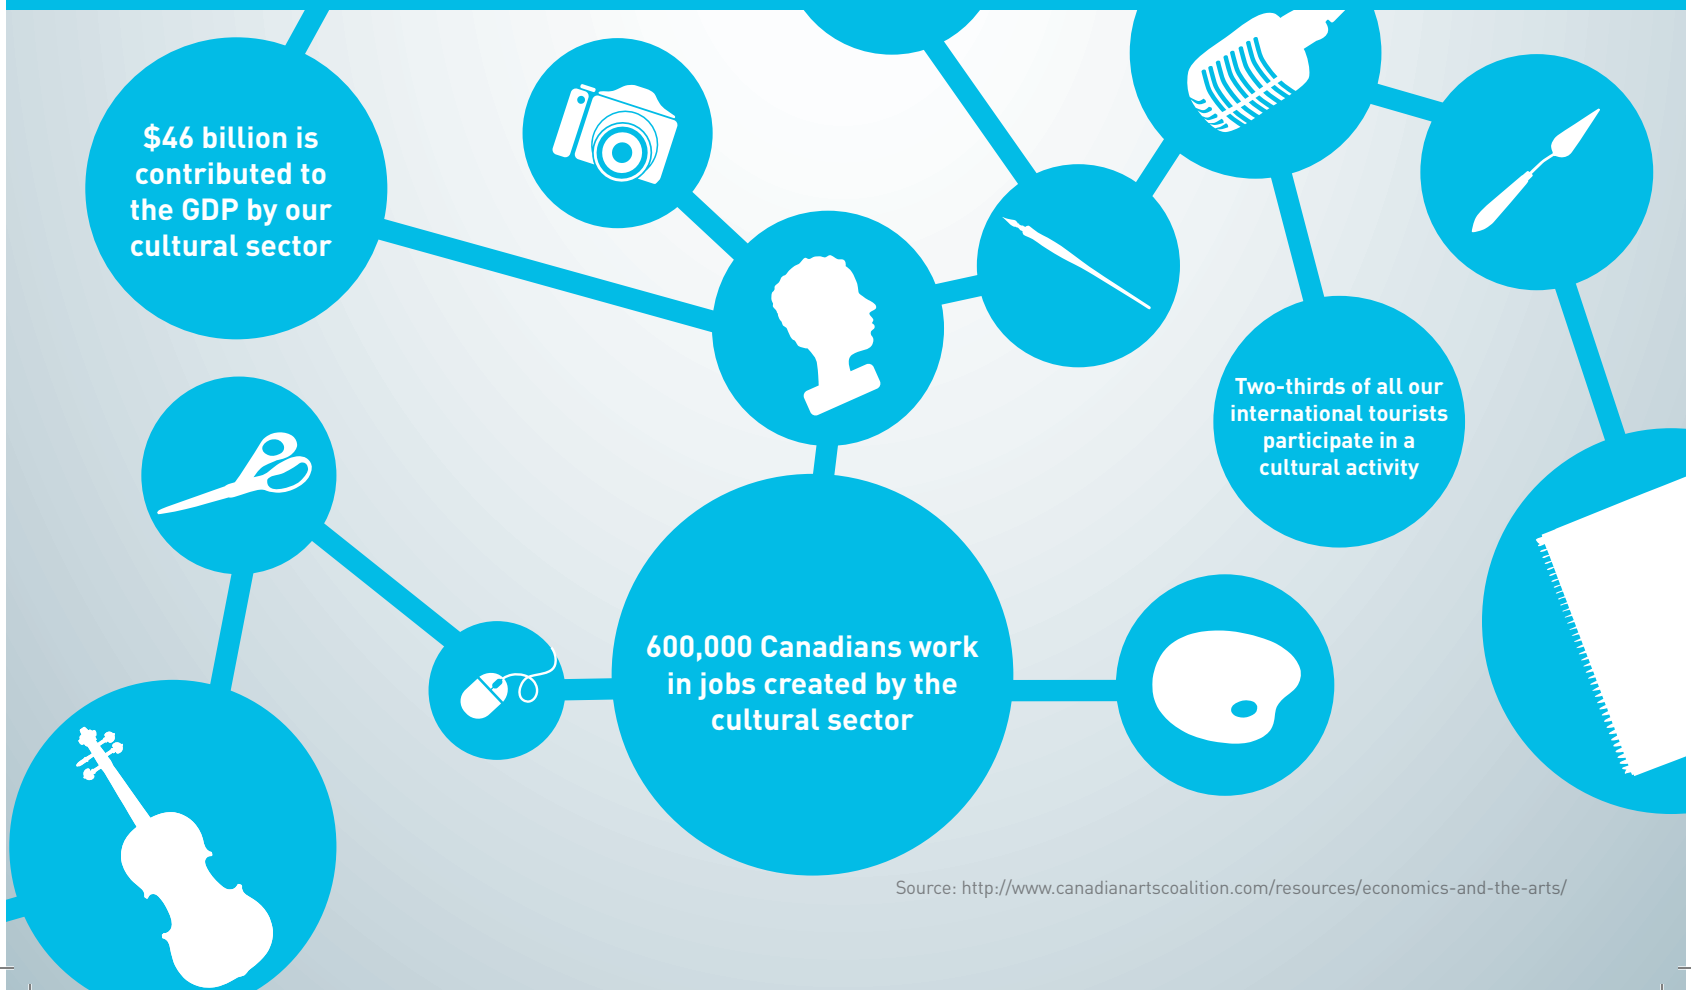

artsVest™ • artsScene™ • boardLink™ • Canadian Arts Summit • Partnership Awards

We leverage the contributions of our members and supporters to invest in the arts across Canada, and help arts organizations connect to the business sector through our matching and training programs that stimulate volunteerism and investment in the arts.
